From Saturday November 2. to Tuesday November 5. 1745.

St. James's, November 5.

THE following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Admirals, Captains, and other Officers of his Majeſty's Fleet at Portſmouth, having been tranſmitted by Sir John Norris, Admiral and Commander in Chief of his Majeſty's Fleet, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Admirals, Captains, and other Officers of your Majeſty's Fleet, at Portſmouth.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Admirals, Captains, and Officers of the Royal Navy, being fully ſenſible of the Bleſſings all Ranks and Orders of Men enjoy under your moſt mild and legal Government, beg Leave to expreſs our utmoſt Abhorrence of the preſent unnatural Rebellion, and do truly and heartily aſſociate ourſelves to each other on the Faith of good Subject, and the Honour of Gentlemen, to the following Purpoſes, viz.

THAT we will bear a true, firm, and unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty: That we will do our utmoſt, by all Ways, to deſtroy all Ships, Veſſels, or Forces, that may be employed by any Power whatever, to invade your Dominions; or bring over any Arms, Succours or Aſſiſtance to the Pretender, or his perjured and other Adherents: And that we never will, either thro' Fear or Favour, ſubmit ourſelves to any Government, or yield up our Ships to any Authority, except that of your Majeſty, or your Royal Poſterity; but that we will wage perpetual War with the Enemies to your Majeſty's Government, and the Religion, Laws and Liberties of our native Country, until the ſaid Enemies be utterly deſtroyed or driven out of your Kingdoms.

The above, as immediate Servants to the Crown, we are bound to by Oath, Honour, and every thing ſacred amongſt Mankind: But as we are Men who have the peculiar Happineſs to be born under a Conſtitution, the beſt calculated in the World for the Dignity and Welfare of Mankind, we ſhould think ourſelves unworthy of the Benefits we thereby enjoy, if we did not, at a Time it is ſo infamouſly attacked, contribute to the utmoſt of our Abilities, our private Fortunes in its Support: And we do therefore deſire your Majeſty will be moſt graciouſly pleaſed to direct ſome proper Perſon to receive the voluntary Subſcriptions of your Sea Officers in Money, and likewiſe any Bills drawn on the Treaſurer of your Majeſty's Navy for Wages due to them in your Fleet, and cauſe the Sums ariſing from the ſame to be expended in raiſing a Regiment for your Majeſty's Service, with ſuch Officers as you ſhall appoint; and we doubt not but ſuch Subſcriptions will be made, as will convince the World, that we your Majeſty's Sea-Officers are unalterably your Majeſty's moſt dutiful, obedient, and devoted Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway, having been tranſmitted to the moſt Honourable the Marquis of Tweeddale, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway, met at Wigtoun the 15th Day of October, 1745.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE beg Leave, with joyful Hearts, to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Arrival

val to your Britiſh Dominions, and the happy Influence of your Majeſty's Counſels and Arms, in determining that great Event ſo lately happened in Germany.

It kindles our hearty Reſentment, that a Circumſtance ſo conducive to eſtabliſh the Tranquillity of Europe, has not been of ſufficient Force to ſtifle the Humours of ſome ſeditious Spirits, who, conducted by the Son of a popiſh Pretender, have attempted to diſturb your Majeſty's Government.

We are filled with juſt Indignation at the Thoughts of ſo black and ſo ungrateful a Conduct, and beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of our now moſt unfeigned Loyalty, and of the Loyalty of the People under our Charge, which we ſhall endeavour to the utmoſt of our Power to increaſe.

We hope we ſhall never forget the late happy Revolution, brought about by King William, of glorious Memory, under the Conduct of Divine Providence, or forbear to contemplate it as the Fountain of all the ſacred and valuable Privileges which theſe Nations enjoyed under your Royal Father; and which we, in a particular Manner enjoy under your Majeſty's auſpicious Reign; the Conſideration of which ſhall ever cement our Hearts, by an unſhaken Loyalty to your Majeſty's Perſon and Government, and to the Proteſtant Succeſſion, as eſtabliſhed by Law in your illuſtrious Houſe.

That the King of Kings may take your Majeſty and Royal Family under his peculiar Protection; that he may crown your Arms, both at home and abroad, with ſuch Succeſs as may effectually extinguiſh the preſent unnatural Rebellion, entirely cruſh the unjuſt and ambitious Deſigns of all your Enemies, and eſtabliſh the Peace of Europe on a ſolid and laſting Foundation: That he may long preſerve your Majeſty, the Support, under God, of our Civil and Religious Liberties, and at laſt crown you with undying Happineſs in a future Life, is the ſincere Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Galloway.

Signed in our Name and Preſence, and by our Appointment.

Ro. Hunter, Moderator.

The following Aſſociation of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, Tradeſmen, and other Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Hobart, Lord Lieutenant, Cuſtos Rotulorum, and Vice Admiral of the County of Norfolk, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Norfolk. Great Yarmouth. } WHereas this Kingdom is greatly endangered by a Rebellion now actually raiſed in Scotland, in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, againſt our moſt gracious and lawful Sovereign King George, and further threatned with a powerful Invaſion from abroad, by the Forces of France and Spain, the Conſequence of which, ſhould it ſucceed, will be the Subverſion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties:

Therefore, We the Mayor, Aldermen, Common-Council-Men, Clergy, Gentlemen, Merchants, Tradeſmen, and other the Inhabitants of Great Yarmouth, in the County of Norfolk, whoſe Names are hereto ſubſcribed, ſenſible of our common Danger, and endued with a juſt Senſe of Gratitude for the Bleſſings we have enjoyed during the Reign of his ſaid preſent Majeſty, do declare our Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the preſent moſt wicked and unnatural Rebellion: And we do hereby unite and aſſociate ourſelves, and promiſe each to the other, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power and Ability, aſſiſt each other in ſupporting his Majeſty King George on the Throne of this Kingdom, and in the maintaining and defending the Succeſſion of the Crown in the Proteſtant Line, according to the Acts of Settlement, and according to our Duty and true and real Intereſt.

Witneſs our Hands this Sixteenth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord Chriſt One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty-five, and in the Nineteenth Year of the Reign of our Sovereign Lord George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, and ſo forth.

The following Addreſs of the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir Charles Hanbury Williams, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Poulett, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Hereford, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions.

And

And alſo to renew our Profeſſions of Duty and Loyalty to your Majeſty, and to expreſs our utmoſt Deteſtation and Abhorrence of the Rebellion that is now in Scotland, and of the Attempt carrying on in Favour of a popiſh Pretender, encouraged and ſupported, as we fear, by the Court of France; and to aſſure your Majeſty of our firm Attachment to your ſacred Perſon and Government. That your Majeſty may long be the Defender of our Religion and our Liberties, ſhall be the conſtant Endeavours of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Addreſs of the Conſtables and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lewes in the County of Suſſex, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Sir John Shelly, and Sir Francis Poole, Barts. their Repreſentatives in Parliament: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Conſtables and Inhabitants of the Borough of Lewes in the County of Suſſex.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WHEN an unnatural Rebellion rages in your Majeſty's Dominions, and they are under Apprehenſions of foreign Invaſions, we are called upon as Proteſtants and Engliſhmen, to appear in Defence of a juſt King and excellent Conſtitution.

At ſuch a Time Indifference is dangerous and Silence is blameable; we beg Leave therefore to aſſure your Majeſty, that, as our Hearts are united in Loyalty, we will unite our Endeavours to maintain our Religious and Civil Rights; invaluable Bleſſings, which we enjoy under your Majeſty, and which we muſt infallibly loſe under a popiſh Pretender. And we cannot but applaud the Zeal already ſhewn by many of the greateſt and moſt wealthy of our Fellow Subjects, hoping their Example will animate the Nation as one Man to prevent ſuch dreadful Calamities.

May Heaven bleſs your Majeſty's Arms; unite the Hearts of your Subjects; and grant that the Sceptre of theſe Kingdoms may never depart from your illuſtrious Houſe.

Given under our Hands, and the common Seal of our Borough, the Eighth Day of October, in the Year of our Lord, One thouſand ſeven hundred and forty five.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters and Common Council of the City of Wells, in the County of Somerſet, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Francis Gwyn, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Maſters and Common Council of the City of Wells, in the County of Somerſet.

Great Sovereign;

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Maſters and Common Council of the City of Wells, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to theſe your Majeſty's Kingdoms.

It is with the greateſt Pleaſure and Satisfaction, that we obſerve the Unanimity and Zeal, the Ardour and Affection, which have ſo ſeaſonably appeared amongſt all Ranks and Degrees of People in this Kingdom, for your Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Government.

Permit us alſo to expreſs our Deteſtation of that horrid and unnatural Rebellion in Scotland, in Favour of an abjur'd, popiſh Pretender, from whom we can expect nothing leſs than a total Subverſion of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; which moſt deſirable Bleſſings, as they have been hitherto moſt happily preſerved to us, ſo we ſtill promiſe ourſelves the Enjoyment of them under your Majeſty's moſt gracious and wiſe Government.

Intereſt therefore, as well as Duty and Gratitude, call upon us; and you have our ſincereſt Wiſhes and Prayers, that the Almighty Governor of the World, the ſupreme Diſpoſer of all Events, may protect your Majeſty's Perſon, bleſs your Councils, and crown your Majeſty's Arms with Succeſs, againſt the Deſigns of all your Enemies: That he would grant your Majeſty a long and happy Reign over us, and in the Succeſſion of your Royal Family, preſerve and convey to us, our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, to the lateſt Poſterity.

Given under our common Seal, at our Council Houſe, the 23d Day of October, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Portreeve, Freeholders and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, has been preſented to his Majeſty by John Harris, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-

Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Portreeve, Freeholders and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Portreeve, Freeholders and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Aſhburton, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe and happy Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and on the Succeſs of your Arms in North America, and of your Endeavours to recover the Balance of Power in Europe.

The unnatural Rebellion in the North calls upon us to give your Majeſty the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our Fidelity and Allegiance, and of our inviolable Attachment to the preſent Government, as eſtabliſhed by Law in your Royal Family.

That your Government ſhould at any Time be diſturbed by thoſe who are protected by it, would naturally give us great Concern. But at this Conjuncture, when you are at War with France and Spain, that ſome of your Majeſty's own Subjects ſhould have concerted an Invaſion of their native Country with theſe Enemies of Europe and Mankind, and be now making Way for it by Rebellion, in Favour of a Creature of theirs, a popiſh Pretender to your Majeſty's Crown, and all to deſtroy the Britiſh Liberties firſt, and ſoon after, thoſe of Europe; this fills us with Horror, and we want Words to expreſs our Deteſtation of it.

For ourſelves, we humbly beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that with the utmoſt Abhorrence of Popery and arbitrary Power, and with the warmeſt Zeal for our holy Religion, we ſhall moſt affectionately join with our loyal Fellow Subjects in Defence of your ſacred Perſon and Government, and are determined to accompany them in their laſt Efforts for their Liberty and their Country.

The following Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Bedford, has been preſented to his Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, Lord Lieutenant of the ſaid County: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Bedford.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE the principal Inhabitants of the ancient Town of Bedford, can no longer keep ſilent in this dangerous Criſis, but muſt beg leave, in our Private Capacities, to approach your Majeſty, with hearty and ſincere Congratulations upon your ſafe and ſeaſonable Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and upon the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Reduction of Cape-Breton; a Conqueſt, we humbly conceive, ſo important, that it at once preſents to us the pleaſing View of propagating, enlarging and protecting the Trade and Safety of your Majeſty's Subjects in that part of the World, as well as the gradual Diſtreſs the Loſs of it muſt bring upon our moſt avowed and implacable Enemy, whoſe Power only, as Rivals in Navigation and Commerce, we are to fear and guard againſt.

It is with equal Grief and Abhorrence, that we find and look upon the unnatural Rebellion that has been raiſed and is ſpreading in Favour of a Popiſh Pretender, a Stroke at once levell'd at the Extirpation and Overthrow of your Majeſty, and your Royal Family; of our Religion as Proteſtants, our Liberties as Britons, and of our Proſperity as a Trading Nation; too many and great Bleſſings to be parted with and loſt for ever, without the utmoſt Exertion in the Defence of them.

We are ready to join with the warmeſt and beſt affected of your Majeſty's Subjects, and with equal Zeal, to cruſh this daring Attempt; a Rebellion to be encouraged by Invaſions from Abroad, contriv'd in the Councils of France, fired with Indignation at your Majeſty's glorious Deſigns for ſaving the Liberties of Europe, and ſupported by the Crown of Spain; the one to fix upon us the moſt arbitrary and tyrannical Government; the other to introduce an Inquiſition, with all its dreadful Train of Tortures, and other diſmal Conſequences, and whoſe mildeſt Puniſhment to their Fellow Creatures is an inſtant Death.

To preſerve us from theſe dire Calamities, may the Bleſſing of the Almighty be upon your Majeſty, your Royal Family, your Councils and Arms, and attend upon the united Efforts of your Majeſty's good Subjects, and make you ſoon and compleatly victorious over all your Enemies at home and abroad: And may all the Elements, in their natural Cauſes and Effects, combine to that great End, and to render abortive all their black Deſigns, (whether open or diſguiſed) in their firſt Formation.

And that our Religion, Liberty and Trade, may long flouriſh under your Majeſty's auſpicious Government, and other Princes deſcended from from your Majeſty's Royal Perſon to the lateſt Poſterity, as the Baſis of our Conſtitution, and the Source of Happineſs to theſe Nations, are the ardent Wiſhes of your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Aſſociation of the Mayor, Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace, Capital Burgeſſes, Common Council, Freemen, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Honourable the Lord Vere Beauclerk, one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Juſtices of the Peace, Capital Burgeſſes, Common Council, Freemen, and other principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Plymouth, in the County of Devon, being deeply ſenſible of the Religious and Civil Liberties we enjoy under the mild paternal Government of our moſt gracious Sovereign King George, feel a juſt Indignation ariſing in every one of our Breaſts, againſt a popiſh Pretender and all his Abettors, who have raiſed an unnatural Rebellion in Scotland; and being encouraged by too much Succeſs, threaten to bring their Arms into England, do, by theſe Preſents, voluntarily unite and aſſociate ourſelves, and hereby bind and oblige ourſelves to each other, by all the Bands and Tyes of Honour and Conſcience, to aſſiſt each other in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon and Government, with our whole Powers, Bodies, Lives and Eſtates; and alſo to offend and purſue, as well by Force of Arms as by all other Means in our Power, the popiſh Pretender, and all Perſons whatſoever who attempt to do Harm to his Majeſty King George, or his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, or any of their Iſſue, or to ſubvert our preſent happy Conſtitution in Church or State.

The following Aſſociation and Subſcription of the Cuſtos Rotulorum of the Liberty of Peterborough in the County of Northampton, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Dean and Chapter, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the ſaid Liberty, has been preſented to his Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Earl Fitzwilliams, Cuſtos Rotulorum of the ſaid Liberty, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Cowper, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Aſſociation and Subſcription his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

The Aſſociation and Subſcription of the Cuſtos Rotulorum of the Liberty of Peterborough in the County of Northampton, the Biſhop of the Dioceſe, Dean and Chapter, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of the ſaid Liberty.

WE being prompted by our Zeal and firm Attachment to the Perſon and Government of our moſt gracious Sovereign Lord King George, and our Abhorrence of that deteſtable Rebellion, now carried on againſt him in one Part of his Dominions, do voluntarily and willingly bind ourſelves to each other, and do faithfully promiſe, that we will, to the utmoſt of our Power, with our Lives and Eſtates, aſſiſt each other in the Support and Defence of his Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, our Religion, Laws and Liberties: And that we will not only never fail in that Duty and Allegiance which we owe, and which it is our true Wiſdom and Intereſt faithfully to perform to his Majeſty, but be ever ready to oppoſe, by Force of Arms, and all other Means in our Power, all Perſons whatſoever that ſhall traiterouſly violate that Duty, and withdraw themſelves from that Allegiance. And as this Time of imminent Danger calls for the immediate Aſſiſtance of all his Majeſty's loyal Subjects, we think the beſt Method in our Power to teſtify the Sincerity of our Hearts, and moſt effectually to advance his Majeſty's Service, will be to contribute in Proportion to our ſeveral Abilities, towards raiſing a Sum of Money, to be humbly offered to his Majeſty as a free and voluntary Gift, to be diſpoſed of by his Majeſty, in ſuch Manner as he in his great Wiſdom ſhall think moſt conducive to ſuppreſs his and our Enemies, and to reſtore that Peace within theſe Kingdoms, which the Son of an abjur'd Pretender, aided by Papiſts, Traitors and Rebels, hath impiouſly and audaciouſly diſturbed. Therefore we his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, do, with Hearts full of Gratitude for thoſe Bleſſings which we have ever enjoyed under ſo good and gracious a King, deſire the Right Honourable William Earl Fitzwilliams, Cuſtos Rotulorum for this Liberty, moſt humbly to offer up our ſeveral Contributions, and thereof to entreat his Majeſty's moſt gracious Acceptance.

The following Aſſociation of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Clergymen, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Rocheſter, and of other Perſons in the Places adjacent, has been preſented to his Majeſty by David Polhill, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting : Which Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

An Aſſociation of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Aſſiſtants, Clergymen, Gentlemen, Freemen and Inhabitants of the City of Rocheſter, in the County of Kent, and of other Perſons in the Places adjacent.

WE his Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, having the greateſt Abhorrence and Deteſtation of the moſt unnatural and wicked Rebellion, begun in Scotland, conducted by the Son of a popiſh and abjured Pretender, and now ſupported and carried on by the inveterate Malice of traiterous Papiſts, Nonjurors, and other deſperate and abandoned Perſons, with an Intent to ſubvert and overturn our happy Conſtitution in Church and State, and to dethrone our moſt gracious Sovereign King George, under whoſe indulgent Government and Protection, the Rights and Privileges which every free-born Briton could either wiſh or deſire, have been, and ſtill continue to be ſo fully enjoyed. And we having the moſt zealous Attachment to his Majeſty's Royal Perſon and Family, and being as well by Duty as Inclination deſirous to contribute all in our Power to ſupport, maintain and defend his Majeſty's Perſon and Government, upon which the Happineſs of theſe Kingdoms (under God) ſo entirely depends; do think it incumbent upon us, in this Time of common Danger, to ſhew the Sincerity of our Hearts, not only by Words, but by our Actions, in uniting ourſelves in one laudable Band of Aſſociation, for the Safety of his Majeſty's Perſon, and the Preſervation of our Religion and Liberties. We therefore, whoſe Names are hereunto ſubſcribed, do every one of us, freely, cheerfully and ſincerely aſſociate, engage, promiſe and declare, That we will at all Times, mutually aſſiſt each other, to the utmoſt of our Power, with our Perſons, Lives and Fortunes, in the Defence and Support of his Majeſty King George (the only lawful and rightful King of theſe Realms) and of the Proteſtant Succeſſion in his Royal Family, and of our happy Conſtitution both in Church and State. And that we will every one of us reſiſt, as well by Force of Arms as all other Ways, every Attempt that ſhall be made by the ſaid traiterous Perſons, or other Enemies of our King and Country, who ſhall by any Means diſturb the envied Felicity of theſe Nations, by endeavouring to place upon the Throne a popiſh Pretender; which if they ſhould ſucceed (tho' God forbid) muſt effectually entail arbitrary Power, with all thoſe dreadful Calamities which are inſeparable from it, upon us and our Poſterity.

Dated at the Guildhall of the ſaid City of Rocheſter, the Fifth Day of October, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Common Council, Freemen, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Liskeard, has been preſented to his Majeſty by Richard Eliot and Charles Trelawny, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Fauconberg, one of the Lords of his Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Magiſtrates, Common Council, Freemen and principal Inhabitants of the Borough of Liſkeard, think it incumbent on us, moſt humbly to beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty of the Share we bear in the univerſal Joy that has prevailed on your Majeſty's ſafe Arrival in theſe your Britiſh Dominions.

We reflect with the deepeſt Senſe of Gratitude on your Majeſty's unwearied and ſucceſsful Endeavours to procure a worthy Head to the Empire: Happy Preſage to a juſt Ballance of Power in Europe; and we congratulate your Majeſty moſt heartily on the taking of Cape Breton, a Circumſtance by all now allowed to be of the greateſt Conſequence to Trade and Navigation.

Our Religion, Liberty and Laws, are of all Things the moſt valuable in our Eſteem.

We cannot therefore, but with the utmoſt Indignation and Abhorrence, look on the preſent Rebellion in Favour of a popiſh and abjur'd Pretender: A Pretender, educated, maintained, and now ſupported by the Pope, in Conjunction with two arbitrary Princes. From theſe he has imbibed his Principles both in Religion and Politicks, and to them an abject Dependant muſt ever remain.

Our glorious Anceſtors removed James the Second from the Throne, who raſhly and impiouſly endeavoured to deſtroy our Conſtitution in Church and State; and yet, this daring Diſturber of our Peace, influenced by the ſame Principles, vainly hopes to become our King.

To prevent therefore, as much as in us lies, the Ruin that would inevitably fall on us, and our Poſterity, from the Succeſs of this deteſted Enterprize;

We are ready, at the Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, to ſupport you and your illuſtrious Houſe, our Rights Religious and Civil, in Oppoſition to this Pretender, and every other Enemy to your Royal Perſon and Government.

Dated and ſubſcribed at the Guildhall of the ſaid Borough, the Eighth Day of October, in the Nineteenth Year of your Majeſty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord, 1745.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Dublin, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders, and Inhabitants of the County of Dublin, at the Quarter Seſſions aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE the Lord Lieutenant, Sheriff, Nobility, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Gentlemen, Clergy, Freeholders and Inhabitants of the County of Dublin, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and to aſſure your Majeſty of our moſt ſincere Duty and Affection to your ſacred Perſon and Government.

On this Occaſion we think ourſelves particularly obliged to declare our juſt Indignation and Contempt of that horrid and unnatural Rebellion, now formed and carried on in Scotland, by Papiſts and other traiterous and wicked Perſons, in Favour of an abjured popiſh Pretender, countenanced and fomented by the old and inveterate Enemies of our Country, our Liberty and our Religion.

We have too long experienced your Majeſty's mild and prudent Adminiſtration, not to hazard every thing that is dear and valuable to us in Support and Defence of it, as we are truly ſenſible the only Way to tranſmit the Bleſſings (we have ſo long enjoyed under it) to our lateſt Poſterity, is by ſteadily and heartily adhering to the Proteſtant Succeſſion as eſtabliſhed in your Royal Houſe.

We think it our particular Happineſs in this critical Conjuncture, that we are governed by that wiſe and faithful Miniſter of your Majeſty, the Earl of Cheſterfield, who by his Ability, Diligence and Zeal for your Majeſty's Service, and for the Good of your People, hath already juſtly gained the univerſal Eſteem and Confidence of all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects in this Kingdom.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, Deputy Governors, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Biſhop, Clergy, and others of the County of Cavan, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, Deputy Governors, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Biſhop, Clergy, and others your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Proteſtant Subjects of the County of Cavan, at a General Quarter Seſſions aſſembled this Eighth Day of October, 1745.

WE humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our Lives and Fortunes in Defence of your Majeſty, your Royal Houſe, and the Liberties and Properties of the Subject.

We know the Value of theſe Bleſſings; and that they can be ſecured to us by no other Means than by ſupporting your Majeſty. We have a juſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Wiſdom and Goodneſs in the inviolable Maintenance of our happy Conſtitution in Church and State; and as we are bound both by Duty and Intereſt, ſo we have now bound ourſelves by the moſt publick and ſolemn Oaths, to live and dye in the Defence of your Majeſty, and of that glorious Cauſe.

The following Addreſs and Aſſociation of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Antrim, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs and Aſſociation his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the County of Antrim, not only thoſe of the Eſtabliſh'd Church, but alſo the Presbyterian Diſſenters, aſſembled at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace holden for the ſaid County, the 8th Day of October, 1745.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE the Governor, High Sheriff, Grand Jury, Juſtices of the Peace, Clergy, and other Gentlemen of the ſaid County of Antrim, not only only thoſe of the Eſtabliſh'd Church, but alſo the Presbyterian Diſſenters, being filled with the higheſt Indignation againſt the audacious Attempt of France to deſtroy our moſt happy Conſtitution, our Commerce, our Liberties, and our Religion, by Means of a popiſh Pretender, as the fitteſt Inſtrument for thoſe wicked Purpoſes of that ambitious People, moſt chearfully embrace this Opportunity, to expreſs our Joy on account of your Majeſty's ſafe Return to your Britiſh Dominions, and to give you the ſtrongeſt Aſſurances of our unſhaken Loyalty and inviolable Attachment to your Majeſty's ſacred Perſon, your Royal Family and Government.

Among the many Bleſſings we enjoy under your Majeſty's juſt and prudent Adminiſtration, permit us, Royal Sir, moſt gratefully to acknowledge your Goodneſs, in ſending to this Kingdom a chief Governor of ſuch diſtinguiſh'd Abilities, as we cannot but eſteem a ſingular Happineſs to us at this critical Juncture.

And we beg Leave, moſt gracious Sovereign, humbly to repreſent to your Majeſty, that ſuch of us as are Laymen, emulating the Glory of our Anceſtors, who bravely defended their Country againſt Popery and arbitrary Power, have entered into a ſolemn Engagement, in which we are confident the reſt of your Proteſtant Subjects in this County who are fit to bear Arms, amounting to Twenty thouſand and upwards, will unanimouſly concur, That if your Majeſty ſhould, at any Time during the Continuance of this unnatural Rebellion, have Occaſion for more Forces than can otherwiſe be readily had, any Number, Share or Portion of us that your Majeſty ſhall think fit to require, will inliſt as Volunteers in your Service, to be employed againſt the Rebels or their Aſſiſtants, in any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, until the Rebellion be ſuppreſſed.

Aſſociation ſigned by the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Antrim, aſſembled at a General Quarter Seſſions of the Peace held at Antrim, in and for the ſaid County, the 8th of October, 1745.

WHereas a Rebellion is raiſed in Great Britain, at the Inſtigation and by the Aſſiſtance of France, our moſt inveterate Enemy, to place upon the Throne of theſe Proteſtant Kingdoms, a Perſon bigotted in all the perſecuting tyrannical Doctrines of Popery and arbitrary Power, as the fitteſt Tool for the wicked Purpoſes of that ambitious People; one, who from his earlieſt Principles imbibed at Rome, and from the whole Courſe of his Education, muſt think it his indiſpenſable Duty, by all poſſible Means, to deſtroy our Conſtitution, our Liberties, our Religion, and our Perſons, notwithſtanding all the Ties that can poſſibly be laid upon him; one whom no Oaths can bind, whoſe Religion licenſes Perjury, and commands Perſecution and Murder.

We the Proteſtant Inhabitants of the County of Antrim, not only thoſe of the Eſtabliſhed Church, but alſo the Presbyterian Diſſenters, for the Defence of our Lives and Liberties, our Property, our Religion and our King, our Rightful Proteſtant Sovereign George the Second, upon whoſe illuſtrious Houſe, under God, depends the Preſervation of us and our Poſterity from Slavery, Miſery and Ruin, do hereby, in the Preſence of Almighty God, ſolemnly promiſe and engage to our King, and to one another, that if his Majeſty ſhould at any Time, during the Continuance of this unnatural Rebellion, have Occaſion for more Forces than can otherwiſe be readily had, any Number, Share or Portion of us, that his Majeſty ſhall think fit to require, will inliſt as Volunteers, in his Service, to be employed againſt the Rebels, or their Aſſiſtants, in any Part of Great Britain or Ireland, until the Rebellion be ſuppreſſed.

The following Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, having been tranſmitted by his Excellency the Earl of Cheſterfield, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, to his Grace the Duke of Newcaſtle, one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to his Majeſty: Which Addreſs his Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Governor, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Lowth.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Governor, High Sheriff, Gentlemen, Clergy and Freeholders of the County of Lowth, beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty on your happy Return to Great Britain, at this critical Juncture, when a moſt unnatural Rebellion renders your Majeſty's Preſence ſo neceſſary for the Support and Comfort of your People.

The Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in reducing Cape Breton, and the happy Election of a King of the Romans, are Events which give us the greateſt Joy, as they muſt tend to croſs and diſappoint the ambitious Views of France, that perpetual and inveterate Enemy of our happy Conſtitution.

We beg Leave humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we are, in our ſeveral Stations, exerting our utmoſt Endeavours in the Defence of your Majeſty and your Royal Family, your juſt juſt Title and gracious Government, on which the Religion and Laws, the Liberty and Properties, the Peace and Happineſs of this Nation entirely, under God, depend.

Petersbourg, Oct. 12. Her Imperial Majeſty having taken the Reſolution of fulfilling her Engagements with the King of Poland as Elector of Saxony, in Conſequence thereof, 14000 Men, under the Command of General Keith, are ordered to march immediately from Livonia into Courland, where they will receive further Orders. There are likewiſe Orders ſent for 20000 Coſſacks and Calmucks to hold themſelves in Readineſs.

From the Head Quarters of the Saxon Army at Sobiras in Bohemia, Oct. 27.

THE 24th of October, the Army had Orders to hold itſelf in Readineſs to march the next Day at Seven o'Clock, to take Poſſeſſion of the Camp near Horczitze, and the Diſpoſition was, that ſix Regiments ſhould remain near Jaromirz, as Hohenembs, Philibert and Serbelloni, of Horſe; Max-Heſſen, Baden and Andlau, of Foot; with four Battalions of Foot, four Battalions of Militia and 700 Huſſars, under the Command of Marſhal Hoenembs, with Lieutenant General Dungern, and Major General Marſchal, of Foot; and Soyer, Major-General of Horſe; the two Regiments which are at Hohenmauth with General Kalckreuth, are alſo under the Orders of the Marſhal, as is the Corps of St. André, which is on the Borders of Bohemia, at Trautenau and thereabouts. In the Afternoon, the Upper Burggrave, Count Schaffgotſch, arrived from Prague, and ſettled with the Prince ſeveral Affairs relating to the Country, amongſt others, the Tranſport of the Forage for the Army.

25. The Army marched at the Hour appointed, in two Columns, towards Horczitze, and after a March of five Hours and a half, entred the Camp at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, its Right extending to Getſchitz, and the Left to Dobrawa; the Court Quarter was in the Town, and that of the Saxon Generals at Clumeck.

The 26th the Army reſted, that there might be Time to tranſport the Forage.

27. We marched at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, and after ſix Hours March the Army entered the Camp by Gitſchin; the Prince took his Quarters at Gitſchin, and the Saxon Generals were lodged at Sobiras.

It was ordered at the Parole, that To-morrow ſhould be a Day of Reſt, and ſeveral affirm, that the Army will continue here two or three Days, to have the Magazines tranſported, which are behind near Koenigingratz, Jaromirz, and Hohenmauth, and the Neceſſaries for the Army before, that we may be provided at entring the Camp.

According to the Reports which arrived Yeſterday from Moravia, it looks as if the Enemy had ſome Deſign on that Side, marching with two Corps and heavy Artillery towards thoſe Frontiers.

The laſt Report from Franquini is from Hormſdorff in Sileſia, obſerving, that Part of the Army was ſtill thereabouts.

We have had no Pruſſian Deſerters ſince the Army quitted the Camp by Jaromirz.

Journal of the Allied Army in Bohemia, from the 28th to the 31ſt of October, N. S. from the Head Quarters at Gitſchin.

October 28, halted.

Upon the 29th Prince Charles gave Orders that the whole Left Wing of the firſt and ſecond Line ſhould march upon the 30th towards Turnau on the Iſer, under the Command of Prince Lobkowitz, the Quarter Maſters being marched the ſame Day to mark out the Camp there.

According to the laſt Advices from Moravia, the Enemy were ſtill quiet on their Frontiers. General Nadaſti is at Friedland with his Corps, where they have built a Magazine.

Upon the 30th, at Seven o'Clock in the Morning, the Left Wing of the firſt and ſecond Line, under the Command of Prince Lobkowitz, marched towards Turnau. That Corps conſiſts of 37 Squadrons and 29 Battalions. From Turnau the Prince will purſue his Route to Bohmiſch-Aycha, and it is aſſured the Right Wing will follow in two or three Days. It was ſaid at the Parole, that at the firſt March the Regiments ſhould canton; and To-day the Prince has ſent Orders to Prince Lobkowitz to do the ſame with his Corps, which is very neceſſary on Account of the bad Weather which begins, it having rained near 24 Hours together. Yeſterday fifteen Deſerters from the Enemy came in.

Berlin, Nov. 6, N. S. On the 4th Inſtant his Pruſſian Majeſty went to Potſdam. Prince Henry his Brother, who was reported to have arrived here at the ſame Time with his Majeſty, continues at Croſſen very ill. M. Woranzow, Vice-Chancellor of Ruſſia, had an Audience of the King of Pruſſia upon the 2d, and was received in a diſtinguiſh'd Manner, and had the Honour to dine with the King the Day after. On Thurſday in the Morning he ſet out for Dreſden. A Courier arrived at Count Czernichew's upon the 2d from Petersbourg; and this Miniſter has ſince acquainted the Court here with her Imperial Majeſty's Reſolution to ſend a Body of Troops to the Aſſiſtance of his Poliſh Majeſty, which are actually marching. The Pruſſian Cavalry in Sileſia is canton'd in the Villages, but the Infantry has taken up Winter Quarters in the Towns and Fortreſſes of that Dutchy. The Reigning Prince of Anhalt arrived here upon the 3d Inſtant, and, it is ſaid, he is to have the Command of the Army in Caſe the War ſhould be carried on this Winter.

Dreſden, Nov. 6, N. S. The Detachment from the Army upon the Rhine has, inſtead of marching to Bohemia, turned to the Left, and is arrived at Hoff on the Saal, from whence it may be able by the 12th, to join Count Rutowski, and ſome think the Intention may poſſibly be to fall on Prince Anhalt Deſſau before he can reaſſemble his Troops, whilſt Prince Charles enters Sileſia by way of Luſatia. Lieutenant General Naſſau has driven the Inſurgents out of upper Sileſia, and is actually raiſing Contributions in Moravia.

Francfort, Nov. 7. Prince William of Heſſe Caſſel has declared, that he will contribute two Battalions to augment the Troops of the Circle of the Upper Rhine, in order to form a Cordon for the Defence of that River. That Circle has declared, after the Example of Swabia, that they will admit no Troops whatſoever to take Winter Quarters in their Territories.

Hague, Nov. 12, N. S. Advices from Paris, which arrived by this Day's Poſt, mention poſitively, that the Scotch and Iriſh Regiments in the French Service, have Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to be embarked; and we hear farther, by good Intelligence from the Coaſt of Flanders, that the Baggage of Lord John Drummond's Regiment was put on board at Dunkirk in the Night between Thurſday and Friday laſt: That the ſaid Regiment was to embark entire, and, as far as was then known there, Detachments of Officers and Men from the reſt; and that the Embarkation of the Men was actually begun. They continue in that Port to load Arms, Ammunition, &c. on board of Privateers, which ſlip out ſingly as ſoon as laden.

Deal, Nov. 4. Yeſterday in the Afternoon arrived from a Cruize his Majeſty's Ships the Pearl and Sheerneſs, as did this Morning the Folkſtone and Hornet Sloop, and brought in a French Privateer belonging to Dunkirk, a Snow with ſeventy Men; they took alſo another Privateer belonging to the ſame Place, with 110 Men; but ſhe is not yet come to the Downs.

Whitehall, November 4.

By Letters from the North of the 31ſt of laſt Month, there is an Account, that the Rebels continue to ſeize on all the Horſes, Forage and Proviſion they can find between Berwick and Edinburgh, in order to diſtreſs his Majeſty's Troops on their March. Their Counſels are ſo various and fluctuating, that they frequently contradict and countermand the Orders of the preceeding Day; they plunder the Country and raiſe all the ready Money they can lay their Hands on from the Collectors of Ceſs Cuſtoms and Exciſe, in the Diſtribution of which to their Chiefs and Superiors, few or none are contented with their Proportion, and conſequently there are great Jealouſies and ill Blood amongſt them. Marſhal Wade propoſed to march towards Berwick Yeſterday or To-day. On Saturday the 26th of laſt Month, the main Body of the Rebels having almoſt entirely evacuated Edinburgh and Leith, pitched their Tents to the Weſt of Inverask Church: They had ſeven or eight Pieces of Cannon pointed South-Weſt, placed on the South-Weſt of their Camp: Their Sick, and ſome of the Baggage were ſent to the Weſtward. They had ordered 100 light Waggons, and a Number of Baskets for carrying on Horſeback, to be made; and from the Gentlemen and Farmers in the Shire of Eaſt Lothian, had got between ſix and ſeven hundred of their beſt working Horſes. They had taken Poſſeſſion of a Place on the Forth called Haigen's Nook, ſome Miles below Stirling, and had placed a Battery on both Sides the Forth at that Place, to keep off the Men of War's Boats that might hinder their croſſing: One of theſe Batteries conſiſted of ſix, the other of five Pieces of Cannon.

Whitehall, November 5.

The freſheſt Intelligence from Scotland mentions the Arrival of four Ships in all in the North Ports of that Kingdom, with Arms, &c. for the Uſe of the Rebels, viz. one at Montroſe, two at Stone Hyve, and the fourth at Dunotyr: That the Cargo of the firſt was carried South in 85 Carts; and that of two others in more than a hundred, drawn each by two Horſes: That they brought ſome Braſs Cannon, and one Piece of five Inches Bore, with ſome Gunners and Officers: That the Small Arms of the firſt Cargo were carried Part to Dunkeld, and Part to Perth, being intended for the Athol Men and M'Donalds, and all the reſt gone forward towards Edinburgh.

That Half of Lord Ogilvy's Men had deſerted; and that a Party of the Rebels in Angus were employ'd in forcing them to return, and Lord Strathmore's Men to join them, threatning to burn their Houſes in Caſe of Refuſal, whereupon many of the Country People were gone out of the Way.

That the Rebels had ſmall Parties in the Paſſes upon the Road to Inverneſs, who ſearched all Paſſengers, and about 40 Men at Perth to guard the Officers, who are Priſoners there; That the Rebels who remained encamp'd at Dalkeith

Dalkeith the 31ſt paſt, had received 1000 Recruits, being the moſt Part Athol Men, with ſome few of the Gordons: That the Carts which went Weſt from Edinburgh the Week before, with the Sick and Wounded, carried likewiſe ſome Cheſts of Arms, which were diſtributed amongſt thoſe Recruits, upon their coming to the South Side of the Forth: That late at Night, on the 31ſt, about 400 of their Men came to Dalkeith Camp from Allowa, and brought with them ſix Pieces of Braſs Cannon, much of the ſame Size with thoſe they had taken at Preſton: That they had with them above 100 Carts loaded partly with Cheſts, and partly with Biſcuit, and 12 or 16 French Engineers.

Yeſterday arrived in the River from Flanders, Lieutenant General Handaſyd's, Major General Campbell, Major General Skelton's, Brigadier General Bligh's, Brigadier General Mordaunt's, Lord Sempill's, and Lord John Murray's, Regiments of Foot.

War-Office, October 25, 1745.

It having been repreſented to his Majeſty, that ſeveral of the Out-Penſioners of Chelſea College, are in ſome Degree capable of Service, and may be uſeful in training and diſciplining ſuch Men as are or may be raiſed by his Majeſty's Authority, for the Defence of this Kingdom againſt the Rebels, either in the regular Forces, or in aſſociated Regiments or Companies of Voluntiers, and are willing to enliſt and enter themſelves accordingly; it is hereby declared it is His Majeſty's Pleaſure, that ſuch of the Out-Penſioners of Chelſea Hoſpital, who ſhall enliſt or enter themſelves as aforeſaid, ſhall continue to receive their Pay and Allowance from the ſaid Hoſpital, notwithſtanding their being ſo enliſted or entered for his Majeſty's Service.

By His Majeſty's Command,

Will. Yonge.

Notice is hereby given to the Petty Officers and Seamen who were on board his Majeſty's Ship Solebay, at the Time of the Capture of the Spaniſh Regiſter Ship the Concordia, that they may receive their reſpective Shares of the ſecond Payment of the ſaid Prize (being for their Share of the regiſter'd Money) at Mr Richard Bowery's Houſe in Chequer Yard without Aldgate, on Wedneſday the 20th of November Inſtant, between the Hours of Ten in the Morning and Two in the Afternoon; and that thence forward, the Shares that ſhall not then have been paid, may be received at the ſame Place, the ſecond Wedneſday in every ſucceeding Month; and that proper Notice will be given in this Paper of the Time when the next Payment will be made.
